The John Fredericks Media Network is the 4th largest independent conservative news/talk radio network in America covering the Mid-Atlantic region from Philadelphia to Atlanta. The John Fredericks Morning Show, heard 6-10 AM daily, has become must-listen radio. President Trump has been a regular guest since 2015. Fredericks served as Trump campaign chairman of Virginia in 2016 and 2020, and was elected Trump Delegation Chairman of Virginia in 2020. Fredericks has spent more than 25 years in the media, previously working as a journalist, newspaper editor, and television host.

John Fredericks Media Network listeners, fans and followers are advocates for conservatism and free speech. They are well informed, highly educated, affluent and engaged consumers with incredible purchasing power! They tune into the news talk radio for entertainment, information and to stay connected and involved with their country and state.
